

I am in opposition to the media consolidations that have been allowed in these past years. Sinclair Corporation has helped suffocate journalism. Free press is not a part of their system when they enforce that their stations must air a political "documentary" on Kerry. It is not balanced. Everywhere I see deregulation, there is a mess. We need more C-Span, less sound bytes and interpretive editing. Let me make up my mind. Manipulative journalism is just that!